

Ronald A. Gibson was born on October 29, 1965, at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden, New Jersey to the late Michelle (Mayfield) Gibson and Ronald Morton. He was the first born of six; little sisters Lisa (Hardwick), April (Morton), Tracy (Morton), Nija and preceded Rhonda (Morton) along with a special brother Yuseff Morton.

Ronald was educated in the Camden City School district and a proud graduate from Woodrow Wilson High School, Class of 1985. He grew up in North Camden later moving to McGuire, East Camden. He was most known in school for his basketball skills, gaining him the nickname "Ralph" after the late great NBA star Ralph Sampson. Upon graduating, Ronald went to a trade school and shortly after landed employment working for the Camden City Housing Authority as a Complex Maintenance Technician for Ablett Village for several years.

Almost everyone would agree, above all else Ronald was a kindhearted man. He hardly ever raised his voice & always played the peacemaker. A jack of all trades is what he was. You name it, he could fix it. Ronald enjoyed cooking, watching the games, listening to oldies, riding his bike, hanging with his grands and talking smack. Throughout his life though, he faced several challenges but one thing that never changed was that he loved his family more than anything! He is preceded in death by his parents Ronald Morton and Michelle Mayfield. He leaves to mourn his three children, Sean (Ronald) Satchell, Ashia King and Tamira Chambliss, five grandbabies, Alona, Emir, Amari, Zoey & Zayden and a host of family and friends.

You are with your Queen again.
