

Clara Mae Hughey (Also, known as Bible Girl), 61, of Willingboro, NJ passed on March 14, 2023, at Virtua Willingboro Hospital in Burlington County. She was the daughter of the late James Hughey and late Willie Hughey.

She leaves a lot of happy, and loving memories as well as: two sisters - Dianne Hughey and Debbie Hughey, and two brothers - John Hughey and James Burnside, one deceased brother - Robert Hughey, and seven nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was a Seamstress, an Artist, an Excellent Cook, and a Home Care Worker. She received Certificates from Greenville Technical College for Customer Service and Fashion Merchandise as well as she was self taught in many other areas.

She had Dreams of working for Tyler Perry Studios, Juanita Bynum Ministries, and TD Jakes Ministries.

She had a smile, and a sense of humor that lit up the room, and kept you laughing, smiling, and encouraged. She was definitely one of God's Worker. She started and ended our day with a pray. She was a BOLD fighter for JESUS, touching hearts everywhere she went.
