

James Adams Jr., 65 of Cherry Hill, (formerly of Delair, New Jersey); died unexpectedly on April 20, 2023. The loss of James affectionately known as “Jimmy” was completely unexpected, and the family is deeply saddened.

James was predeceased by his parents James and Jacqueline Adams and his sister Dawn Hodge. James was born on April 14, 1958, to James and Jacqueline in Camden, New Jersey. James attended Pennsauken High School. After graduating high school, he enlisted in the United States Army. He traveled and served from June 1976 to March 1983 after being Honorably Discharged.

He returned home to Delair and worked for Pennsauken Township for two decades until moving on to work with his brother, Jeff at Adams Autobody. He remained there until his passing.

Anyone who knew James, lovingly called Jimmy, knew that he sought to bring humor to all situations and “call it like he saw it.” Jimmy had an immense passion for loyalty and was always a source of positivity. Jimmy was a great storyteller, often using his hands and expressions to the fullest. His family and friends will miss him dearly.

He leaves with cherished memories his loving and devoted children, Niketah (James) and Tori, one surviving uncle Bernard Miller, grandchildren Myles and Octavia, sister Kathy (Jessie), brother Jeff (Trish), nieces and nephews Danielle, Carolyn, Jessie, Jennifer, Valerie, Jonathon, Jarrett, great-nieces and nephews Dante, Mariah, Jalena, Lillian, Jace, Mark, Layla, Anthony, Alexandra, Jersey, dear aunts, cousins, and friends.

A father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and dear friend were just a few of his many roles on this earth. However, the lasting impression he had on the youngest all the way to the oldest was immeasurable. We, his family know that God’s purpose for his life was served. We gracefully thank the Lord for being allowed to know such a man. His smile, laughter and jokes will truly be missed.
