

Randy Miller Obituary

Randy Miller was born Friday, July 16, 1954 in Bainbridge, Georgia to the late Joseph Miller and Rubie Lee Williams. He was the oldest of a union that produced four children.

From Bainbridge, the family relocated to New Jersey, settling in the city of Camden. At the age of 13, Randy accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at the New Mickle Baptist Church located on 416 S. 4th Street in Camden, NJ on March 5, 1967. Randy was educated in the Camden City School District; attending Central, Powell and Cramer elementary schools, Henry Davis Middle School and the former Woodrow Wilson High School, currently Eastside High School, where he graduated—class of 1973.

It was there, at Woodrow Wilson, that Randy met the love of his life, Sharon N. Noel. It was a short time after their high school careers where they began their relationship, reconnecting at a party in Lawnside, NJ. Their courtship led to their wedding on August 27, 1977, producing a marriage of 45 years and 1 son. Whether showering each other with gifts or date nights in Atlantic City, Randy & Sharon's love for and commitment to each other stood the test of time.

As a youth, Randy was a fine athlete; winning numerous awards for his accomplishments on the baseball field and on the basketball court. Professionally, Randy worked as a truck driver for numerous companies including King Arthur Trucking, Aruvil Oil Company and Weaver Oil Company. He also worked as kiln machine operator for Hoeganaes Corporation. "Moe," as he was affectionately called by family and friends alike—due to his father's homemade haircuts—continued with physical activity for the balance of his life; whether it was playing basketball in his younger days, running at the Cooper River track or at home on his treadmill or doing yard work until he was physically unable to.

An avid sports fan, Randy followed the Sixers and Eagles, although he was a San Francisco 49ers fan. He lived his life honorably as a son, brother, husband, father, uncle, and grandfather. He dedicated his adult life to ensuring the safety and security of his wife and son, to the very end. The joy of his life was to spend his time with his family; celebrating his wife, mentoring his adult son, and enjoying his three grandchildren, affectionately known as "the peeps." Randy departed this life October 19, 2022. He will be deeply missed.

Preceding Randy in death are his sister Gail Williams and his brother Ronnie Miller. Left to cherish his memory are his wife Sharon Miller of Pennsauken, NJ; son Randy Rakeem Miller of Sicklerville, NJ; daughter-in-law Autumn T. Miller of Sicklerville, NJ; grandchildren Jaxson Miller, Kennidi Miller and Lyndyn Miller of Sicklerville, NJ; brother Gary Miller of Gulfport, MS; uncles James Miller of Detroit, MI, and David Brown of Cherry Hill, NJ; aunts Eula Williams of Attapulgus, GA, Emma Chambers of Atlanta, GA, Rebecca Vaughn of Havana, FL, and Sarah Banks of Quincy, FL; nieces Toni Garcia (Rudy) of Rockwall, TX and Nyree Vidro (Angel) of Sicklerville, NJ, nephews Stanley Cassidy III of Pleasantville, NJ, Dontay Benson of Camden, NJ, and Marquese McCormick of Miami, FL; also a host of cousins, 2nd and 3rd nieces and nephews, and friends.
