

Shannon (Guillemette) Jakobowicz, 55, of Plainsboro, NJ, passed away unexpectedly on August 21, 2025. Born on August 12, 1970, in Caribou, ME to Ronald and Linda Guillemette.

Shannon graduated from Caribou High School, in 1989 and subsequently relocated to Toms River, NJ, where she pursued studies as a dental radiographer and certified dental assistant. She later decided that management and logistics aligned better with her personality, and more recently, she was employed as a Traffic Coordinator for Herme's of Paris.

In 2014, she met Stephen Jakobowicz, and were married on June 16, 2018, where they later established their home in Plainsboro, NJ.

Shannon was recognized for her gentle, reserved nature. However, she also exhibited a strong and bold personality. She had an amazing singing voice, and, throughout her childhood, she consistently took part in various talent shows. She was always eager to step onto a stage or join in a karaoke session.

Additionally, she was an exceptional cook, a skill passed down from both parents. Shannon had a passion for Broadway musicals, and the Green Bay Packers.

In addition to her husband, Stephen, Shannon is survived by her father, Ronald Guillemette, of Deltona, FL. Siblings: Ron Guillemette and partner Patti Romano of Caribou, ME. Tina Guillemette of Merritt Island, FL. Michelle and husband Brady Elowsky of Tampa, FL. In-laws, Mike and Nicole Jakobowicz and their children, Alexa and Ayden of Aberdeen NJ. Nephew, Brandon Parent and niece Alexis Guillemette of Caribou, ME. Shannon was preceded in death by her mother, Linda Guillemette in 2016, and honorary stepfather Richard Brown in 2022.

Shannon will be interred in Evergreen cemetery next to her mother, located in Caribou, ME, at a future date.

In lieu of flowers, kindly consider donating to your local Humane Society as Shannon had a deep passion and affection for all animals.
