

Luis Andino Frontanez lived a rich and fulfilling life, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, entrepreneurship, and love for his family and community.

Born on November 10th, 1925, in Yabucoa, Puerto Rico, to late Francisco and Matilda Frontanez, he grew up with many siblings. Luis eventually moved to the United States and settled in Camden, New Jersey.

Throughout his life, Luis was known for his entrepreneurial spirit, working at various places such as Penn Fish, Mighty Good Bakery, Campbell's Soup, and RCA. His hard work allowed him to invest in properties in Camden, where he owned homes, a thrift store, a candy shop, and gained recognition for his water ice stand. His success as a businessman was complemented by his strong faith, as he was an active member of the Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church in Camden.

Luis found love and companionship in Margo Myrtle Mears, and together, they had 16 children: Spencer (Joy), Susie, Russell, Tyrone (Junette), Charles (Darlene), Oscar (Kyle), Luis, Antonio, Frankie (Stacy), Carlos, Nicole, Margo (Gerald), Manuel, Jose (Danilsa), Maria and Andre (Tiwanta). This large family was a testament to his generous and loving nature. Luis was not only known for his business ventures but also for his culinary skills, especially his delicious cooking, which included dishes like rice and bacalao. His home was a place of warmth and hospitality, always ready to welcome guests with a hot plate and a serving of his famous water ice.

Family was of utmost importance to Luis, and he cherished his role as a father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. His love for music and his enthusiasm for dancing and clapping along and playing his guitar whenever there was music around added joy to family gatherings and celebrations. Additionally, his strong faith was evident in his commitment to reading the Bible, a practice he carried with him wherever he went, sharing the word of God with those he encountered.

On Wednesday, October 4th, 2023, Luis passed away surrounded by his loved ones, leaving behind a large and close-knit family. His memory will be cherished by his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all those whose lives he touched throughout his years. Luis Andino Frontanez's legacy as a successful entrepreneur, a loving family man, and a man of faith will be remembered and celebrated by those who knew and loved him.
