

Rodney T. Reynolds Sr. was born to Rudell Reynolds Sr. and Delores Reynolds October 13, 1965, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Rodney was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System, where he later graduated from Edison High School in 1984. He then met his childhood sweetheart, Donna Connor. To their union were born four children: Rodnika, Rodney Jr., Doneshia, and Devon. He would then later welcome a child with Ana Diaz, his fifth born, Isaiah Reynolds. Rodney was blessed with two grandchildren: Linda and Amor, whom he loved dearly.

Rodney fell in love with the camera and before you knew it; capturing memories became his favorite thing to do. His love for photography was immense. He went nowhere without his camera. He took pictures as a hobby and eventually turned it into a career. His favorite place to shoot was New York, specifically Dumbo Brooklyn. And his favorite city to visit was Harlem.

He loved to travel, and he was an amazing cook. He started baking very young by learning from his mother who was an amazing baker. His signature dishes were Spanish rice and ribs. And he made sure to make them at just about every function. Rodney was big on family and large in life. Everyone knew him and everyone loved him. From his childhood best friends to his nieces and nephews who he adored so much. He was the guy who commanded attention the minute he walked through the door. His faith in God is what kept him strong. He lived up to his nickname "Roc"; because he was solid, and he told it like it was.

Rodney entered eternal rest peacefully on November 5, 2023, at his home in Stratford, NJ. He was preceded in death by his parents, Delores and Rudell Reynolds Sr. as well as his brother, John Reynolds.

He leaves to mourn his five children, Rodnika Connor, Rodney Reynolds Jr. (daughter in law, Diara Reynolds), Doneshia Hill (son in law, Shyrek Hill), Devon Reynolds, and Isaiah Reynolds; fiancé Vanina Ale, two grandchildren, Linda Hill and Amor Taylor; five brothers, Russell Reynolds, Randy Reynolds, Barney Reynolds, Rudell Reynolds Jr., and Michael Reynolds as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"I Love You Infinity" - Roc